

Are your leaders finding it difficult to connect with their team?

How does this impact on organisational goals?

At the Leaders Map, we train your leaders using the unique M.A.P. and C.O.M.P.A.S.S. leadership training program and we deliver it away from the traditional classroom environment.

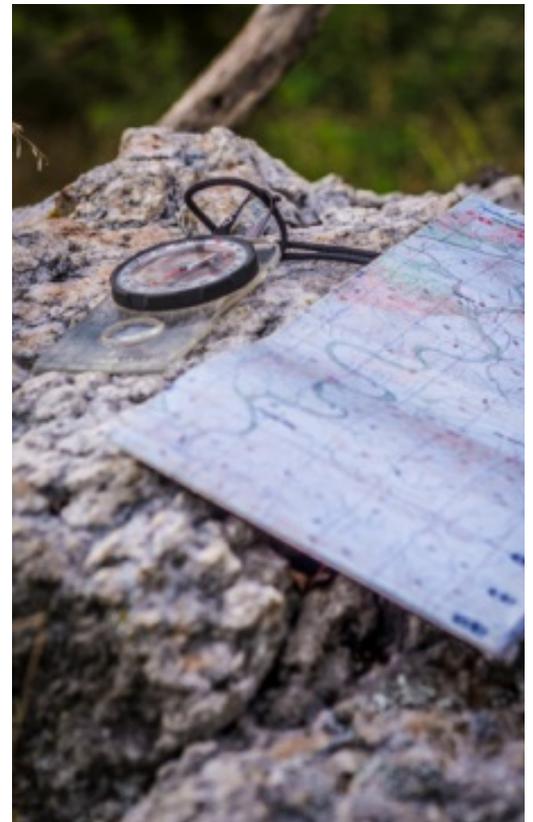

What is it?

Our M.A.P. program focusses on 3 areas essential to leadership success:

- Mastery of self, including personality, values, beliefs and behaviours.
- Awareness of others, including personality, social and cultural diversity
- Planning for the journey ahead, including strategy, goal-setting and time management

Our C.O.M.P.A.S.S. program explores seven core areas required to effectively lead teams:

- Collaborate, including communication, team development and facilitation skills.
- Oversee, including leadership theories and styles and delegation
- Mentor, including elements of effective training and coaching
- Participate, including intervention, problem-solving and continuous improvement
- Appraise, including performance reviews, giving feedback and thinking styles
- Support, including managing change, seeking assistance, alcohol/drug awareness and emotional intelligence
- Succeed, including defining success, motivation and future planning

How does it work?

Designed for the great outdoors, the program involves hiking and camping and is divided into a series of leadership treks:

Trek 1: Mastery & Awareness - 2 days and 1 overnight camp.

Trek 2: Planning - Full day hike only.

Trek 3: Collaborate & Oversee - 2 days and 1 overnight camp.

Trek 4: Mentor & Participate - 2 days and 1 overnight camp.

Trek 5: Appraise & Support - 2 days and 1 overnight camp.

Trek 6: Succeed - Full day hike only.

(Single night, day hikes or classroom sessions can be arranged).

Our program is designed to be flexible, to meet your organisation's needs. And if you don't need the entire program, we can tailor a solution for you!

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What do I get from the program?

A: Participants engage in a series of discussions and activities specifically designed to deliver unique leadership training with impact.

Q: How many people can attend a trek?

A: To maximise the learning experience group sizes are limited to a maximum of 16. Larger groups can be accommodated on request.

Q: What do I need to bring?

A: That depends on the trek. Some equipment is provided and participants will receive a detailed list of what to bring on each trek. All meals are provided for the duration of each trip.

Q: How fit do you have to be to attend?

A: Participants need reasonable fitness & be medically fit to carry a backpack weighing approximately 20 kgs, to walk on varying terrain, eat basic rations & sleep in basic protection from the elements.

Q: Is it dangerous?

A: Every care is taken to ensure safety, however bushwalking & camping pose inherent risks. Participants will be required to sign a waiver of indemnity in the unlikely event of an accident, injury, illness or death resulting from participation in the program.

Who should attend?

This program is ideal for anyone responsible for the leadership of others.

Whether a senior leader or a leader at the frontline, our program is designed to deliver practical leadership training with impact.

About The Leaders Map

The Leaders Map specialises in leadership training programs without the traditional classroom environment. Program participants experience learning and development in an outdoor environment – hiking and camping during their learning experience.

We boast in excess of 20 years' leadership experience and 10 years of delivering successful training programs.

The Leaders Map is the brainchild of Adelaide businessman, Leigh Aitken.

Over the past 10 years Leigh has successfully trained nearly 6,000 people from hundreds of businesses across most industry sectors.

Leigh's extensive leadership experience spans more than 30 years, having worked in senior roles for local, national and international organisations.

Leigh is recognised as a creative thinker, an entertaining presenter and trainer and an articulate communicator. He delivers training in a fun, relaxed atmosphere that engages participants during their learning experience.

Leigh is also experienced in bushcraft and navigation, volunteering as a Team Leader with Operation Flinders, a wilderness therapy program for at risk youth.

So when you're out bush with Leigh, you're in safe hands!

Let us give your leaders a M.A.P. and a C.O.M.P.A.S.S. to guide them through the business wilderness.
